Catarrh

Is a constitutional disease.
It originates in a scrofulous condition of the blood and depends on that condition.
It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, affects the vocal organs and disturbs the stomach.

It is always radically and permanently cured by the blood-purifying, alterative and tonic action of Hood's Sarsaparilla

This great medicine has wrought the most wonderful cures of all diseases depending on scrofula or the scrofulous habit.

Hood's Pills are the best cathartics.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Kansas saloon smasher, is still destroying saloons and has been having a stormy time in some places. She has been cowed, rotten-egged and assaulted by women arrived with broom-sticks and still she is not discouraged. She says she intends to break up all of the saloons in Kansas.

Judge C. J. Pratt has filed suit in the Appellate court at Frankfort against Attorney General Breckinridge, seeking to reopen the contest case on appeal proceedings and recover the office, by taking advantage of the present political complexion of the Appellate court. It is said the other defeated candidates are trying to find a way to reopen the contest.

The Isle of Wight, where Queen Victoria died, is off the Southeast coast of England, in the English channel, 70 miles from London. It is only 22½ miles long and 13 miles wide, being separated from the mainland by the Solent, a narrow body of water across which boats ply continuously.

NO ICE YET.

Gloomy Outlook For a Crop Of Winter Ice.

The outlook for a crop of ice this winter is getting blue for those who rely upon winter ice. It is now late in the season and it is hardly likely that severe weather is to be expected at the close of this very mild winter. There has been no weather cold enough to furnish an ice crop up to this date, and the country ice houses are all empty.
However, some of them say that they have gathered ice in February and even as late as March, but this is an exception. The owners of ice houses are hoping that this may continue to prove an exceptional winter by having a freeze in February that will afford ice to fill the houses.

About five years ago I was troubled with catarrh of the lower bowel," says C. T. Chisholm, 484 D-arborn Ave., Chicago, and although I consulted several eminent physicians who prescribed for me. I found their remedies failed to in any way relieve me, and the almost became chronic.
After suffering several months, one day concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I beg to assure you that I was most agreeably surprised to find after taking two doses of the remedy that I was completely relieved of the disease that had cost me so much trouble and annoyance. I am thankful to say that I have not suffered from it since." For sale by R. C.

FEDERAL COURT

In Session at Owensboro This Week.

The January term of the United States court convened yesterday at Owensboro. The docket for the term is larger than usual, especially in the number of criminal prosecutions. The most important case on the docket is that against Herman J. Naunheim on the charge of embezzlement and altering the books of a national bank to conceal an embezzlement. The indictment is made up of eight counts, most of them stating specific alterations of the books of the late Owensboro National Deposit bank. He is charged with embezzling $11,000.

Dr. Caperton Dead.

Dr. A. C. Caperton died at his home near Litchfield last Friday and was buried at Louisville Sunday.

He was one of the oldest Baptist ministers in the State, having been in the ministry for half a century.
He was also an old newspaper man, and at one time was editor of the Western Recorder, the organ of the Missionary Baptist church in this State.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Southern School of Osteopathy.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

Franklin, Ky., Jan. 28, 1901

MR. EDITOR:—

We shall undertake to answer the many inquiries we are receiving concerning Osteopathy, and this institution by a series of letters to your valuable paper. We shall promptly answer any letters received from your readers concerning our school or the treatment of patients.

Osteopathy was discovered over twenty-five years ago, but it has been taught by schools for over ten years. The wonderful success which the first graduates obtained in the cure of disease awakened a great interest in the science and the result is that there are now nearly one thousand practicing in nearly every state of the union.
Eight states have legalized the practice and protect it.

The Southern School of Osteo-pathy, Franklin, Ky., is one of the largest and is able to give the very best advantages to students desiring thorough qualification for practice. The next class begins the 4th of February. The course requires twenty months, the tuition is three hundred dollars for the full course, board costs from ten to twelve dollars per month and the books about thirty-five dollars.

The expenses for the two years are not more than they would be in any good college. The graduates are able to make greater success than any other class of people. In fact it is wonderful to consider the results that are obtained in the cure of disease and also the financial success which attends the young men and women who have chosen Osteopathy as a life work. The very best class of people is represented in the school. Few colleges could begin to compare with the Southern School of Osteopathy in the standing and the intellectuality of the students. Yet it does not require more than a good common education to make a fine success of Osteopathy.

Probably many of your readers are not decided as yet as to the profession or calling that they will adopt for a life work. It would be well for all such to give a careful consideration to the claims of this new science that is so highly recommended by Governors, Senators, Congressmen, Judges and others of the most practical and yet the most intellectual of our countrymen.

The tuition is to be raised after the spring term to four hundred dollars and it is well to immediately investigate the claims of the profession and enter—if possible—the next class, saving thereby the additional cost of the increase in the tuition.

The school has a fine practice also, and patients come from all parts of the United States to get the benefit of the experience and ability of the men who compose the school faculty. The patients find pleasant boarding places in the homes of the city. They receive treatment at the infirmary at a cost of only twenty-five dollars per month. A limited number of cases, people who are not able to pay for regular treatment, are taken free to give the necessary practice to the advanced students. These cases are examined by the regular graduate physicians and are treated under their direct supervision.

This is a good time for patients to come to the infirmary, as they will be able to receive the most careful attention from the physicians of the institution. We have some literature specially prepared to explain our success to invalids and will send it to any who will write therefor. Every curable disease is taken, and our physicians have been able to cure a large part of those, who have tried without success, all other methods. If you are sick investigate Osteopathy. If you want a profession investigate.

STOCKS COTTON WHEAT

RONDO GONE.

The Well Known Canine Has Disappeared.

Mr. C. A. Thompson is mourning the disappearance of Rondo, the best known and most popular dog that ever lived and flourished in Hopkinsville. He has not been seen since last Tuesday and his whereabouts is still a mystery.
Something has evidently happened to him, for he knew Hopkinsville like a book and it would be impossible to lose him. He is now more than 15 years old and for most of that time has been Mr. Thompson's constant companion and body guard. He has taken many trips with him and has figured in many exciting episodes. About a year ago he was scalded by some enemy of dogs and although he recovered it was at the expense of all the hair on one side of his body. On another previous occasion he had a leg broken, but Mr. Thompson brought him around all night from that injury. He has been growing old of late and may be dead. If so, he missed a decent burial by not dying at home. Any information about him, dead or alive, will be thankfully received by his friends.

TWO DRY GOODS STORES.

Purchased By J. H. Anderson &
Co.—New Store To Open.

A big deal in mercantile circles was consummated Saturday, by which the firm of J. H. Anderson & Co., acquired the two dry goods stocks of Watts, Richards & Co., and T. L. Gant, aggregating about $20,000. Mr. Anderson, who has built up a tremendous business in shoes and clothing during his phe-nomenally successful career of eleven years in this city, will open up in the new line of dry goods and conduct a new and thoroughly up-to-date store at 211 South Main Street. This is the store room adjoining his present double stand, now occupied by A. M. Wallis. Mr.
Wallis will move his grocery stock one door to the North and the store to be vacated will be at once remodeled and overhauled. A new front will be put in and an archway will be opened connecting it with the shoe store adjoining and the whole establishment of three departments will be run under one management.
Mr. H. C. Richards will be with the new house and Mr. Frank Watts will go into business at Pembroke.
Mr. T. L. Gant will have charge of the carpet department of the new house. Until the new house is ready, the stocks will be consolidated in the late stand of T. L.
Gant.

Pneumonia Prevented

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and la grippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of lagrippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by R. C. Hardwick.

WILD WITH ECZEMA

And Other Itching Burning Scaly Eruptions with Loss of Hair

Speedy Cure Treatment $1.25

Bathe the affected parts with Hot Water and Cuticura Soap (25c.) to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment (50c.) freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take Cuticura Resolvent (50c.) to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set (price, $1.25) is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring and humiliating skin, scalp and blood humors, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

This sweet and wholesome treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning, and scaly humors of the skin, scalp, and blood, and points to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure when other remedies fail.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scald head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, itches, and salt rheum—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura remedies are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humor remedies of the civilized world.

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap

Analysed by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for beautifying the skin, for the stopping of falling hair, for softening and whitening red, rough hands, for baby rashes and itches, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, for too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, for many sanative antiseptic purposes, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. CUTICURA SOAP combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, viz., 25 CENTS, the BEST skin and complexion soap and the BEST toilet and baby soap in the world.
